

Here's an outline of my typical Thursday Night Success Meetings. You can fill in the blanks with helpers. Your Consultants can assist or perhaps other directors, depending on your situation.

This actual format is set up so that you and divide the consultants from the guests during the makeovers. Everyone's situation is different, so adjust accordingly and as needed. We're always evolving and adjusting our meeting to fit our specific needs at the current time. It's important to be organized yet FLEXIBLE!!!

This format will give you an idea of how I plan for my meetings.
